Product Description

This cable management rail by Delock is suitable for mounting on a 35 mm wide DIN rail. Optimum cable management. Different cables, wires and hoses can be fixed to the rail with cable ties or Velcro straps to enable neat and organised cable routing. It also provides excellent strain relief for the cables. Secure hold on the top-hat rail. The cables remain in their original position even in the event of vibrations and cannot slip or fall out. Versatile use. The cable support rail is ideal for use in electrical devices, machines and control cabinets.
